

Mike Doss

Percussion

Mike Doss is a graduate of The University of Memphis where he participated as a snare drummer in the Mighty Sound of the South marching band. He also worked as a marching percussion technician with the U of M marching band and PASIC drumlines in the early 90s. He has been a percussion instructor and arranger for a multitude of superior rated high school and college drum lines including the University of Memphis, Delta State University, South Panola High School, and Southaven High School and has served as consultant for numerous other marching band programs. Mr. Doss was a percussion staff member and recruiter for the Memphis Sound Drum and Bugle Corps, and was founder and Director of the DC Accent WGI indoor Drum Line and Winter Guard program of DeSoto County. He has been with DeSoto Central since 2001.